

Dentistry Still a Top Job

January 2019

U.S. News and World Report has released its “Best Jobs 2019” rankings of the 100 best jobs. According to the magazine, “No single job suits all of us, but many of the best ones have a few attributes in common: They pay well, challenge us year after year, match our talents and skills, aren't too stressful, offer room to advance throughout our careers and provide a satisfying work-life balance... and whether the position is in demand.” Dentists ranked #4; orthodontists tied for #5 with nurse anesthetist; oral surgeons and prosthodontists tied at #9; and dental hygienists ranked #30. Which job took first-place this year? Software developer.
